

Enduro's Plat Storage and Filing System is The Affordable Answer!

How can Plat Storage meet the computer age challenge! High-tech computerization has found innovative answers to many office problems. But the reality is that some County office problems are so unique, they just can't be solved by computers alone. County plat storage is a necessary part of your office organization – but how can you move this difficult, cumbersome record keeping into the computer age?

The innovative, affordable answer is the Enduro Plat Storage and Filing System.

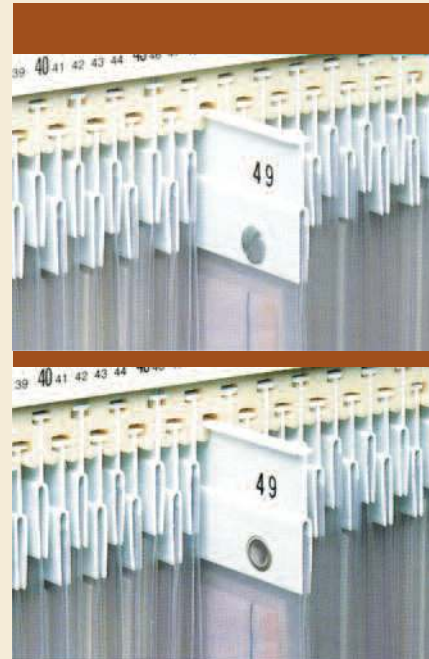

Working in tandem with computer-age technology, this efficient easy-to-use system eliminates bulky, heavy, difficult-to-carry books – and replaces them with a system that incorporates light weight envelopes to hold your plats. This affords your office staff the freedom and flexibility of removing one plat envelope at a time – for updating, reference or photocopying. The durable, easy to clean envelopes fit into smartly styled cabinets that maintain the computer-age image. And the cost is amazingly economical! In fact, the office time you save, will practically pay for the system!

Consider these specific features of this unique Enduro system.

- Easy indexing system helps you find plats quickly.
- Perma envelopes and hangers slide in and out smoothly, never jam.
- Tracks molded of self-lubricating ABS plastic.
- Perma envelopes hold two plats back to back (making it possible to photocopy without removing from envelope.)
- Sturdy all welded steel construction.
- It's fully warranted (No maintenance agreements).
- Plat cabinets are fire resistant, equipped with recessed locking door handles and fit through most court house vault doors.
- Two styles available!
Plat Cabinet (with single or double door)
- Uncabinet (without door, features formica top work surface.)

Enduro Benefits that will enhance your office efficiency.

- Safe, secure, dust-free storage.
- Smart office styling, functional design. It's an instant organizer!
- Uncabinets are economical and offer maximum storage in minimum space.
- Special size cabinets can be ordered in either assembled or knock-down style for assembly on location.
- It's user friendly (no special training required.)

Wishbone Plat Hanger and Envelopes
The Wishbone hanger was designed to hold existing plat book perma envelopes. (In some cases the hanger will hold multiple envelopes). Each envelope is securely attached to the hanger by small screw posts.

Regular Plat Cabinet Envelopes
These envelopes are eyeletted to the hanger bar. Envelopes have zippered closures and hold two plats, back to back.

Enduro's smart styling gives your office the "look" of the computer age – in addition to the operative efficiency. And you'll note that every Enduro feature – material, workmanship, design, detail, service – is TOP OF THE LINE!
